

Programme Outcomes of M.A. History :

- Able to explain definition and meanings of History, scope and subject matter concepts of History, uses and abuses of History and kinds of History.
- Able to explain research and bibliography, concept of research, History and its relation with social science.
- Students can understand sources of study archaeological literature and foreign accounts, and overall History
- Able to explain History of modern india-adbent of European s policy of European east India company, establishment of British supremacy.
- Able to explain Anglo-Mysore relations and expansion of British empire in India 1818-1857.
- Able to explain History of south Indian-Satavahana period, Kadambas of Banvasi, Calukyas of Kalyani and Hosalla of Dwarasamudra
- Able to explain Socio Religious moments in India
- Able to explain Ancient Indian Polity
- Able to explain Principal and Methods of Archeology
- Those who have completed M.A Degree They are eligible for appear to attend NET/SLET/JRF